PARTNER INSTITUTIONS AND LOCATIONS OF THE CA' FOSCARI SHORT FILM FESTIVAL 12

FONDAZIONE UGO E OLGA LEVI: Fondazione Ugo e Olga Levi is a prestigious international center of musical and musicological studies. Over fifty years of experience has suggested that research groups could be created on a specific theme, and seminars and conferences were organized to compare and check the results of their respective works. Associated with these activities, a thriving editorial trend and an intense concert program have developed. The Foundation, always in synergy with the world of education and universities, has become a point of reference for the numerous organizations committed to spreading culture throughout the area.

CASA DEL CINEMA: Municipal structure inaugurated on September 23, 2008, the House of the Cinema hosts the activities of the Pasinetti Video Library in a context of further strengthening the city's cultural offer. Located on the ground floor of a wing of Palazzo Mocenigo where, on the first floor, the offices of the Municipal Cinema Circuit operate, the structure detects and enriches the programming of the Pasinetti Video Library, the municipal video archive whose establishment dates back to 1991. The Casa del Cinema offers classics in the original version with subtitles, art cinema reviews, films and videos of Venetian production, book presentations and meetings with the authors, ten individual workstations for consulting the film heritage and an exhibition space for photographic exhibitions.

FONDAZIONE QUERINI STAMPALIA: The sixteenth-century palace and the contemporary architectural spaces of Carlo Scarpa, Valeriano Pastor and Mario Botta are the setting for concerts, meetings, exhibitions, screenings, workshops. It is the Fondazione Querini Stampalia. Wanted by the last descendant of the family in 1869, Count Giovanni, a cultured and philanthropist. The library is open according to the founder's will until late at night and on holidays. The museum house, a model of a patrician residence with original furnishings and rich art collections, and the Intesa Sanpaolo collection. A refined bookshop, a cozy café, the secret garden with its oriental suggestions. A unique place, to experience the emotion of art and beauty.

CA' PESARO – MUSEO D'ARTE ORIENTALE: the Museo d'Arte Orientale, located on the third floor of Ca' Pesaro, houses a collection of works from the Far East, collected by Enrico di Borbone on a journey made in the nineteenth century. These include numerous Japanese works from the Edo period (1603-1868): prints, musical instruments, objects, shadow theater figures.

FONDAZIONE BEVILACQUA LA MASA: Founded in 1898 from a testamentary bequest, the Fondazione Bevilacqua La Masa, now an institution of the Municipality of Venice, deals with contemporary art and young artists. With the current exhibition venues, the Galleria di Piazza San Marco, the headquarters of Palazzetto Tito, the Stanza del Camino alla Giudecca and the 15 ateliers assigned each year, BLM has represented from the 20th century to today a unique case in Italy of cultural service of support for artistic expression.

Also NH VENEZIA RIO NOVO, the hotel that NH Hotel Group inaugurated in 2018 in the lagoon city, is the setting for the twelfth edition of the Ca' Foscari Short Film Festival. The hotel - an elegant 4-star hotel located in the heart of the Dorsoduro district and technical sponsor of the Event - will in fact be the stage for numerous initiatives during the festival.
